

NEQC HISTORY

The first New England Quality Control Conference was held Thursday, January 22, 1948, at the Boston City Club. It was sponsored by the Boston, Hartford, Western Massachusetts, and Southern Connecticut sections of what was then the American Society for Quality Control (ASQC) and the Boston Chapter S.A.M. There were four clinics each with four speakers and a luncheon and dinner speaker.

The second conference was held in Boston in conjunction with the second National ASQC conference.

The officers of these early conferences were:

Chairman - Jerry Cassidy

Secretary and Treasurer - R. Shaw Goldthwait

Other pioneers were (according to Mr. Goldthwait's memory):

Dorian Shainan, Warren Purcell, Len Seder, Cliff Kennedy, Ed Harrington, Bob Jones, Bill Carter, Warren Grosjean, Chester Hoffman, Bob Selig, Bill Adam, Charles Hudson, Erv Schiesel, and Forrest Fales

The third annual conference was held in conjunction with the third annual convention of ASQC at the Copley-Plaza Hotel, Boston, May 5 and 6, 1949. There were four series with twenty speakers. The afternoon of the 6th was occupied by clinics and round table discussions.

In 1950 the fourth conference was held at the Hotel Kimball, in Springfield, MA. The dates were November 4 and 5. Mr. G. H. Cassady of U. S. Rubber was the chairman. There were twenty sessions and fifty-two exhibitors. The six sections sponsoring were: Boston, Southern Connecticut, New Hampshire, Western Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Hartford.

On Friday and Saturday, November 9 and 10, 1951, Bridgeport, CT, was the scene of the fifth conference, whose theme was "Yankee Ingenuity in Quality Control." The general chairman was Mr. E. E. Schiesel. There were three series on Friday and four on Saturday.

By 1952 the conference had nine sponsoring sections, Albany, Buzzard's Bay, and Worcester having been added. This sixth conference was held in Worcester, MA, on the 3rd and 4th of October. Mr. A. U. Sternloff was chairman. There were four series with twenty speakers and an educational program.

The New England Quality Control Council was formed on September 3, 1953, at a meeting held in conjunction with the annual banquet of the University of Connecticut Statistical Quality Control Institute.

The Council was created to act as a continuing body between conferences.

The second meeting of the Council was held on November 5, 1953 during the seventh conference at Providence, RI.

The Council officers elected were:

Chairman - Ervin Schiesel

Secretary - Leonard Seder

Treasurer - R. Shaw Goldthwait

At this meeting the Council designated Albany as the site of the eighth conference in 1954 and Hartford was granted permission to host the ninth conference in 1955.

Providence, RI, was the host section for the seventh conference on November 5, 6, and 7, 1953. Mr. C. W. Kennedy was chairman. The program consisted of four tracks with eighteen speakers, an educational program with four instructors and a panel discussion on the subject of Quality Control Administration.

By 1954 the conference had twelve sponsoring sections, the new sections being Burlington, Mid-Hudson, and New Haven. The conference was held in Albany, NY, on October 21, 22, and 23. Mr. R. R. Jones was the general chairman. The program for this, the eighth New England Conference, had four tracks with twenty-two speakers and an educational track. It also featured an all day seminar on the Quality Control Function.

In 1955 the ninth conference was held on November 4, and 5 in Hartford, CT.

The co-chairmen were George Selig and Chester Hoffman. There were four series of five sessions and seminars on Management, Vendor Relations, and Quality Control and Marketing.

In 1956 R. Shaw Goldthwait was elected chairman of the Council. Mr. Carl O. Bauman was elected secretary and Mr. Samuel A. Oliva was elected treasurer. These officers served through 1959.

The host section for the tenth conference was Western Massachusetts. The conference was held in Springfield, MA, on October 4 and 5, 1956, under Chairman C. W. Carter. Records show that there were five hundred twenty registrants.

On October 17 and 18, 1957, Southern Connecticut was the host of the eleventh conference, under the guidance of Chairman Howard Levenson. There were four full tracks, two seminars, and thirty-six speakers.

Fred C. Hartwell was chairman when Pittsfield held the twelfth conference, October 30 and 31, 1958. There were four tracks of eight speakers, an educational series, and a seminar on Quality Control Administration.

On November 5 and 6, 1959, the Rhode Island Section held the thirteenth conference in Providence, RI. Chairman of the event was Alpine M. Cummings, Jr.

At the Council meeting the following officers were elected for 1960-61:

Chairman - R. Shaw Goldthwait
Secretary - Carl W. Nickerson
Treasurer - Douglas A. Slingerland

Mr. Fran Olson was chairman of the fourteenth conference, which was held in Worcester, MA on October 19, 20, and 21, 1960. At the Council meeting R. Shaw Goldthwait, Carl W. Nickerson and Douglas A. Slingerland were re-elected.

Hartford was the scene of the fifteenth conference on October 26 and 27, 1961. Mr. Kenneth Martin, Jr. was conference chairman. Twenty-seven speakers presented a well-balanced program.

The Merrimack Valley Section was admitted to the Council on October 26, 1961. The council officers were re-elected.

The conference returned to Boston, MA on October 24, 25, and 26, 1962, when Mr. Shant Chebookjian headed the sixteenth conference.

Mr. Saul Twicken was chairman of the seventeenth conference, which was held in Poughkeepsie, NY, October 25 and 26, 1963. There were four tracks and a two-day education series on the Design of Experiments and Analysis of Variance.

Upon this, the occasion of his retirement, Mr. R. Shaw Goldthwait was honored for his long service to the Council and conference.

The Council officers for 1963-64 were:
Chairman - Francis Olson
Vice Chairman - Douglas Slingerland
Secretary - John Sigmann
Treasurer - Shant Chebookjian

The Constitution was revised and approved by all twelve sections

The Section Services Committee was established.

The New England Council established an award to "honor R. Shaw Goldthwait for his many years of unselfish devotion to the New England Quality Control Council." This award is now presented annually to the individual who has made a significant contribution in promoting Quality interest and activities in the North East area. Mr. Shant Chebookjian was the first recipient; the award was given to him at the conference dinner.

For the sake of allocating future conferences, the Council designated five zones with the following sections in each zone:

1. Albany and Pittsfield
2. Rhode Island and Worcester
3. Western Massachusetts and Hartford
4. Southern Connecticut, New Haven, Poughkeepsie, and Danbury
